Dear Incompetent Bank,

With respect to the Credit Card payment for $9,000,000 that you attempted to pay to Nigerian Trust Fund Management . . . what the hell were you thinking? I don't have a credit card, nor do I have nine million dollars in my account. So please take your letter of non-payment and the £42 "fine" and shove them both where the sun never shines.

Yours, disgustedly,

Mr. Body
